HON'BLE SIR,

I am directed to submit for the sanction of Government the accompanying proposition statement for the appointment of two additional copyists in the permanent establishment of the District Court of Cuddapah.

2. Two temporary copyists have been continuously at work in the Court since 1894; the amount of remuneration earned by them during the last three years is given in the margin. The District Judge reports that without these additional copyists the copying work of the Court cannot be efficiently discharged; the net savings for the year 1897 after all deductions had been made including the amounts paid to the copyists as above amounted to Rs. 235-6-10.

1896-- 493- 7- 0.
1897-- 331-14-10.

3. The High Court considers that the earnings and savings quoted above show there is enough work to justify the
