Mis. No.

2256.

Read letter from Bryce Mc Master Esquire., Acting Deputy Commissioner, Central Division No.2213, dated 8th May 1898, submitting for the Board's orders explanation from Mr.O'Brien for overstaying the Easter Holidays.

Resolution.

Referring to Government Order No. -

- A 57, Financial, dated 24th January 1898, the Board requests the sanction of Government, as a special case, to the grant to Assistant Inspector Mr.O'Brien of the Salt, Abkari and - Customs Department of two days' casual leave in extension of a portion of the Easter holidays availed of by him.
2. Mr.O'Brien was originally granted permission to avail himself of the whole of the holidays from the 7th to the - 12th April, but was unable to get away till the 9th owing to a delay in relieving him. He overstayed the holidays by two days, being absent for six days in all. The reason alleged for his overstay is that ill health prevented his return. He has no leave of any kind due to him except casual leave, and, if the orders are to be strictly enforced, the last two days of his absence will have to be treated as leave without allowances and will entail on him the forfeiture of his service counting towards privilege leave. As he was actually absent for no longer a period than was originally permitted, the - Board recommends, as above, that it should be allowed to - waive the operation of the order prohibiting the taking of leave the Christmas and Easter Holidays leave in extension of ~~them~~ and to grant him casual leave for the 13th and the 14th April.
