C.No.1844

Subject

Medicines supplied by Govt.
at half cost to certain hospitals.

NOTE

In July 1895, the President, Municipal Commission, Madras & the Surgeon-General were asked to quote the authority under which a moiety of the cost of medical stores supplied to

- (1) the Native Infirmary
- (2) Black Town Dispensary
- (3) Sir Ramaswami Mudaliar's Lying Hospital was debited to Provl. funds. No authority could be traced, and pending the decisions of a private Committee on the ultimate reorganization and management of the three institutions, the Govt. agreed to pay the moiety, special orders being passed for each year.
