NOTE FOR THE C.A.

The Leges Dept. desires that ~~three~~ copies of Acts & Abstract Proceedings should be distributed to Leges. Member (2) that three copies of each should be sent to the Leges Dept. — 1 for the Secy, 1 for the A.S. & 1 for the office.

(1) — This is being done in all cases —

(2). In regard to this request, it is submitted that no action ~~need~~ ^{is required} be taken by this Dept. with regard to India Acts. The Supt. of Pub. Press distributes India Acts and the Leges may, it is submitted, arrange direct with the Supt. for the supply of the needed no. of copies. Orders are requested.

As for the Acts of the Provincial Leges. Councils, & it is submitted ~~that~~ one copy of ~~the~~ each is ^{now being} already supplied to the Leges Secy.

has therefore to be considered or two ^{more} copies of these publications are to be applied to the Legue Dept.

In the case of the
of Other Provincial Governments, Eleven copies remain in the Libr. after complete distribution. Two if there may be in future be given to the Legue Dept.

In the case of ^{however} the of the Abstract Proceedings of Other Provincial Govts, only three copies remain in the Libr. after distribution. Two copies of these cannot be given to the Legue Dept. It is therefore submitted that other provincial Govts may be requested to increase their present supply by two. The no: in draft at E has been altered from 25 to 27.

In the case of the Abstract Proceedings of the Imperial Council the difficulty of supplying the Legue Dept ^{with the two copies} is increased by the Note for the Financial Dept.

3 copies ^{each} are required for the Legislative Department, one for the Secretary, one for the Assistant Secretary & the third for the Office. Besides these the Legislative Council members number 26 including H.S. & H.M.s. and they will have to be supplied with copies as well. It is therefore suggested that 7 in the number of copies asked for provision be made towards their demand.
