ORDER—No. 779, Financial, dated 8th September 1898.

Under existing orders a copy of every official publication, those of an ephemeral or confidential nature excepted, has to be supplied to the British Museum through the India Office, quarterly lists of such publications being prepared by the Superintendent of the Government Press to enable the authorities of the museum to check any omissions that may occur in the transmission of books to England. In view to the strict observance of this rule, the Superintendent notifies the approaching issue of every official publication to the Secretariat Department concerned, which decides whether the publication is of an ephemeral or of a confidential nature, and, if it belongs to neither of these classes, intimates to the Superintendent, Government Press, the number of copies to be transmitted to the India Office. The intimation with the foregoing particulars is then forwarded to the Financial Department.
