Casual Leave.

Permitting the Medical officers and Medical subordinates serving in the Jail department to avail themselves of — for periods not exceeding ten days at a time or fifteen days in the year.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., No. 904, Financial, dated 19th November 1895.

ABSTRACT.—Permitting certain officers of the Medical and Jail departments to avail themselves of casual leave for periods not exceeding ten days at a time or fifteen days in the year, and declining to grant chaplains any concessions regarding the casual leave rules.

READ—also the following paper:—

From A. G. CARDEW, Esq., M.A., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Prisons, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, dated Ootacamund, 9th August 1898, No. 4379.

In submitting copy of a letter, dated 3rd August 1898, from Surgeon-Captain Fearnside, Superintendent and Medical Officer of the Rajahmundry Central Jail, at present on privilege leave, I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to decide whether Medical officers and Medical subordinates serving in the Jail department are allowed to take casual leave for periods not exceeding ten days at a time or fifteen days in the year under paragraph 1 of G.O., No. 904, Financial, dated 19th November 1895.

ENCLOSURE.

From Surgeon-Captain C. F. FEARNSIDE, Superintendent and Medical Officer of the Rajahmundry Central Jail, to the Inspector-General of Prisons, dated 3rd August 1898.

I have the honour to invite your attention to G.O., No. 904, Financial, dated 19th November 1895, paragraph 1, which runs as follows:—

“Officers and subordinates of the Medical department and jailors, deputy jailors, et seq., will be permitted to avail themselves of casual leave for periods not exceeding ten days at a time or fifteen days in the year.”

2. I beg that you will kindly inform me whether this privilege extends to myself and the Medical subordinates of the jail.

3. The special reasons for this concession to Medical officers and Medical subordinates are clearly stated in the letter to Government from the Surgeon-General, No. 395, dated 20th September 1895, and these, I considered, are equally applicable to the Medical Superintendent of a Central Jail and his Medical subordinates.

4. I would point out that as Medical Officer of the Jail I am practically always on duty and liable to be summoned at any time, while a non-medical Superintendent is free on Sundays and casual holidays.

Endorsement.

Acting Under Secretary.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 789, FINANCIAL, DATED 13TH SEPTEMBER 1898.

From the Inspector-General of Prisons, No. 4379, dated 9th August 1898.

In this Presidency casual leave cannot ordinarily be granted for a longer period than five days at a time or for more than ten days in a calendar year. An exception has, however, been made in the case of such members of the Police force, both in the mufassal and at the Presidency town not being members of office establishments as are not allowed to avail themselves of Sundays and other casual holidays. In their case casual leave can be granted for periods not exceeding ten days at a time or fifteen days in the year.

2. The Surgeon-General and Inspector-General of Prisons representing that the five days' limit worked hardly in the case of their departments, Government was pleased to rule that “Officers and subordinates of the Medical department and jailors, deputy jailors and warders in the Jail department will be permitted to avail themselves of casual leave for periods not exceeding ten days at a time or fifteen days in the year.”

G.O., No. 904, Financial, dated 19th November 1895.

3. It has been ruled in the Local and Municipal Department that “all subordinates of the Medical department, whether actually in the service of Government or lent to Local Boards and Municipal Councils, are entitled to this concession.”

4. The Superintendent and Medical officer of the Rajahmundry Central jail enquires if the concession granted to the Medical officers and the Medical subordinates in G.O., No. 904, Financial, dated 19th November 1895, extends to himself and the Medical subordinates of the Jail department. He points out that the reasons which led to the grant of the concession apply equally in the case of Medical officers and subordinates serving in the Jail department, and that as a Medical officer of the jail, he is obliged to be always on duty and liable to be summoned at any time, while a non-Medical Superintendent is free on Sundays and casual holidays.

The Inspector-General of Prisons forwards the letter for a decision by Government as to whether Medical officers and Medical subordinates serving in the Jail department are allowed to take casual leave for periods not exceeding ten days at a time or fifteen days in the year under G.O., No. 904, Financial, dated 19th November 1895.

5. Submitted that in extending to Medical officers and Medical subordinates, the concession granted to the members of the police force, Government seems to have contemplated all officers of the Medical service, in whatever civil department they may be employed. This view has been further approved in G.O., No. 446 M., dated 9th March 1897.

A.C.

For the Chief Secretary—

It seems to be clear that the concession in paragraph 1 of G.O., No. 904, Financial, dated 19th November 1895, was intended to apply to all Medical officers, whether serving in the Jail department or in other civil departments. In paragraph 2 of his letter No. 928 C., dated 23rd September 1895, on page 3 of that order, the Inspector-General of Prisons expressly excluded Superintendents of Jails from the proposed concession, but the case of Medical officers is, it is submitted, on a different footing, as pointed out by Surgeon-Captain Fearnside in the present communication.

Draft is submitted for approval.

SUBJECT.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

THE HON'BLE SIR HENRY BLISS, K.C.I.E.

THE HON'BLE MR. ARUNDEL.

Casual leave to medical Officers and medical subordinates serving in the Jail Dep't.

FOR ORDERS

Not ~~to~~ article 366, C.S.R. lays down that casual leave is not subject to any rule, but that it cannot be granted so as to cause evasion of the rules in the C.S.R. or so as to extend the period of absence or privilege or any other leave admissible under the rules.

In this Presidency
2. The Local Govt. ruled in 1894 that casual leave ordinarily cannot be granted for a longer period than five days at a time or for more than ten days in a calendar year. an exception has been made even in the case of the members of the Police force, both in the

at Presidency town not being unfussal and the ~~city~~ <sup>members of</sup> ~~as are~~ <sup>Office establishments</sup> not allowed to avail themselves of Sundays and other casual holidays. In their case casual leave ~~can~~ be granted for periods not exceeding ten days at a time or fifteen days in the year.

3. The Surgeon General and the Inspecta General of Prisons representing that the five days limit worked hardly in the case of their departments, Govt. was pleased to rule that "Officers and subor-dinales of the Med. Dept. and Jailors, deputy Jailors and warders in the Jail Dept.
will be permitted to avail themselves of casual leave for periods not exceeding ten days at a time or fifteen days in the year".

So. It ~~was~~ <sup>has been</sup> ruled in the L. V.
n Dept. that all subordinates of the Medical Dept.
whether actually in the service of Govt. or lent to Local Boards and Municipal Committees.

5. The Supt. and Med. officers of the Rajahmundry Central Jail enquire if the concession granted to the medical officers and the medical subordinates in G.O. no 904, dated 19-11-95 extends to himself and the medical subordinates of the Jail Dept. He points out that the reasons which led to the grant of the concession apply equally in the case of medical officers and subor-dinales serving in the Jail Dept. and that as a medical officer of the Jail, he is obliged to be always on duty and liable to be summoned at any time, while a non-med.
cal Superintendent is free
on Sundays and casual holidays.

The J. G. of Prisons forwards the letter for a decision by

by Govt. as to whether medical officers and medical subordinates serving in the Jail Dept. are allowed to take casual leave for periods not exceeding ten days at a time or fifteen days in the year under G.O. No 904, Finl dated 19th Nov 1895.

6. Submitted, that in extending the concession granted to the members of the Police Force, to ~~the~~ medical officers and medical subordinates, Govt. seems to have contemplated all officers of the medical service in whatever civil department they may be employed.

This view has been further approved in G.O. No 446 M, dated 9-3-97, ~~and that the Jail Dept. may be informed accordingly.~~
