SIR,

I have the honour to submit the following case for favour of the orders of Government:-

Stationery articles to the value of Rs 27-7-0 were supplied to the Engineer-in-chief, Arisikere, Mangalore Railway Survey, Bangalore, in 1896. Before their value was recovered the office was closed. The Consulting Engineer for Railways, Madras, who was requested in this Office letters Nos. 47 and 55 of 98 dated 28th June and 8th July respectively, to advise me as to the source from which the amount in question can be realized, has replied to the effect that it should have been deducted from the value of the surplus stationery articles returned to this office at the closing of the Survey. They were sold and the proceeds - Rs 2,378-14-7 - were credited to the Survey in the accounts for 1897-98. I am at a loss to explain why the recovery was not made as it should have been but as that was not done and ^{as} the Survey ~~as~~ was an Imperial undertaking, I request that sanction may be accorded to the amount - Rs 27-7-0 - being written off.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J.N. Atkinson
