(a) The Pusthu interpreter left on the 6th May 1898, and no substitute is necessary. This accounts for the decrease in the revised estimate for 1898-99. No provision has been made for 1899-1900.

(b) The budget estimate for 1898-99 was provided on the actuals of 1896-97 which included travelling allowance of the police escort who accompanied the Chitralis when they first arrived here. The revised estimate for 1898-99 and the estimate for 1899-1900 provide only for the police guards.

(c) As Khokand Beg has been released under G.O., No. 315, Political, dated 6th May 1898, and as the Pushtu interpreter has left, a reduction has been made in the revised estimate for 1898-99 and in the estimate for 1899-1900.

(d) The increase is based on the actuals of 1897-98.

(e) & (f) The decrease is based on the actuals of 1897-98.

(g) Charges under this head have been wrongly included under the item for "food". Correct classification will be made hereafter.

(h) The increase in the estimates is based on charges incurred already.

(i) Charges under this head include the cost of medicine purchased and charges paid to a nurse who attended on the Chitrali ladies at confinement and, when sick. An increase has, therefore, been made in the estimates to provide for such charges.

(k) The actuals of 1898-99 include an expense of Rs. 188-12-0 incurred on the railway fare, &c., for the journey of Khokand Beg and of two constables who were ordered to accompany him to Malakhand, and for the return journey of the two constables to Ootacamund. Hence the increase in the revised estimate for 1898-99.

The other charges comprise payments to tinker and cobbler and charges incurred in purchasing snuff, tobacco, vessels, &c.

Note.—If it should be found necessary to confine Amir-ul-Mulk separately, a supplemental budget will be submitted.

Certified that the actuals as entered above are those shown in the departmental accounts.

No statements were received from the Accountant-General nor discrepancies noticed.
