No 463.

MADRAS 16th Sept 1898

To,
The Chief Secretary
to Govt.
Madras

Sir,
I beg to state that some years ago, Messengers from the Govt. office used to deliver us packets of papers placed at the disposal of the Press. Subsequently, we were directed to send on our own men to the Govt. Offices, Govt. to obtain the orders. Lately, we were asked to send on our men to the Govt. Press, print buildings, for the above purpose.

A Papers published in English are still being supplied with the Papers thro' Press messengers; while, we are obliged to send on our men. English Papers are supplied with the Press Papers earlier, whereas we don't get them before

Friday night, a Thursday eve.
We are therefore put to inconvenience.
Our Office is hardly at a stone throw distance from the Hind Office. Consequently, I wrote to the Govt Press & told the kind enough to despatch our Papers as well, by the messengers who bear the Papers to the Hind Office, since to reach the Hind Office the messenger has pass by our office. The Euphu writes to say, he can't do so, unless ordered by Govt. We are thankful to Govt. for the Papers supplied

Supplies, as well as Ad: Reports & Publications. Last week we received the bare order of Govt: on the Police Ad: Report; the Supdt Govt: Press, in reference to an inquiry, says, the order of Govt: must be obtained.

Valuable books & Publications like the manuals of administration by Dr. C.D. Maclean, Dr. Hunter's Gazettes, and the Pramp: Ad: Report this office was furnished with by Govt:, and I therefore beg that, you will be so good as to instruct the Govt: Press to send us Press Papers by the messenger who bears them to the Hind Office, and to supply us with a copy of the Police Ad: Report of last yr.

OFFICE NOTE.

With reference to Endorsement No. 2046, dated 22nd September 1898, on Financial Current No. 2574, herewith retained, the Superintendent, Government Press, submits that there are 17 newspaper offices and 6 institutions in the town of Madras receiving the papers placed on the Editor's Table; 6 of them namely the "Madras Mail", "Madras Times", "Madras Standard", "The Hindu", "Catholic Watchman" and "Madras Christian College Magazine" receive them daily at their office, through a press peon, the other 11 Editors send their own messengers to receive them at the Government Press on Thursday evenings or following days. The Editor of "Andhraprakasika" now desires that the papers be delivered to him daily by the press peon; should this request be acceded to, the other Editors receiving the papers weekly will expect a similar concession, and if a full daily delivery is made to all the newspaper offices it will be

The Superintendent further submits that "Audhprakashika" being a weekly paper, the Editor cannot get the papers daily under (ii) para 2 of Circular G.O. admitting newspapers to the privileges of the Editors' Table (Form No. 71/18).

2. Bound copies of the departmental administration reports are not supplied to the Editor of "Audhprakashika" as he is not eligible to get them under Memorandum No. 91 Financial, dated 29th September 1892. Under instructions from the Chief Secretary Editors receiving papers daily are supplied with reports that are bound with the G.O., the other editors receive the G.O. only. If bound copies are to be supplied to all the other editors, 44 copies of each report will be required.

Seventeen newspaper Offices and ^{six} institutions within the town of Madras receive papers placed on the Editors Table. Six of the seventeen newspaper offices receive the papers daily through a press peon. The Editors of the remaining eleven, including the Andhra Prakash send their own messengers to the Govt Press on Thursday evenings or on the following days.

2. The Editor of the "Andhra Prakash" represents that his office is within a stone's throw of the office of the "Hindu", ^{one of the six} which gets E.T. papers daily, & that the messenger who carries the papers to the latter office has to pass by his. He therefore asks that the same peon may be entrusted to deliver E.T. papers ^{at his} office as well.

3. The Supdt. Govt. Press, remarks that if this request is granted, the other Editors who receive papers weekly will expect a similar concession, and that if a full daily delivery is made to all the newspaper offices, it will be necessary for ^{the Supdt.} him to devote the entire services of press to this work. He adds that the "Andhraprakasika" being ^{awfully} ~~is~~ ^{is} ~~debarred~~ ^{debarred} from receiving E.T. papers daily under para 2 (ii) of the Circular (f.o.) admitting newspapers to the privileges of the Editors' Table: vide Form $\frac{F}{13}$ flagged C.

4. The Editor further represents that in the early part of September last he received the bare order of Govt. on the Police Administration Report

It is not easy to follow the Supdt. of the Govt. Press here.

Report. ^{Heokernes} that Govt. has favoured him with valuable books & publications such as the manuals of administration by D. C. D. Mackenzie & D. J. Hunter's gazetteer of the Presidency Administration Reports, and asks that he may be supplied with a copy of the Police Admin. Report for last year.

5. Mr. Hill states that bound copies of the departmental administration reports are not supplied to the Editor of the "Andhraprakasika" as he is not eligible to receive them under Memo No. 91 Financial Dept. 29th Sept 1892: that under instructions from this office only three Editors who receive papers daily are supplied with such reports bound with the f.o.: and that the other Editors, get only the f.o.: and that if bound copies are to

to be supplied to the other Editors ^{also} 44 copies of each report will be required,
In a previous communication of 18.2.97 this same Editor of the "Andraprakasha" complained of the late delivery of S.T. papers ^{by the Press} to his messengers.
After referring to the Supdt, Jot Puro, the Editor ^{was informed} ~~was informed by Jot~~ in its Order N° 321 Dated ^B afternoon (5 pm) had been fixed by the Supdt, as the earliest time at which papers can be ready for delivery to messengers, that this decision had been made known to all the Editors concerned. He was further informed that as it was not always possible to deliver all the papers on Thursday afternoons, he could send his messengers on

on the Tuesday Evening or Tuesday morning following for such papers as had not previously been delivered.

His request of the Editor that he may be placed on the "free delivery" ~~list of S.T.~~ list ^{is}, it is subd, reasonable in view of the fact he mentions - viz. that the Press man who delivers papers at the "Hind" Office has to pass the ~~Andrapra~~ "Andraprakasha" office.

His request for a copy of the Price Administration report, which is on sale at the Press, appears to be inadmissible.
