From

Inspector of Salt and Abkari Revenue, Konada Circle

To

The Assistant Commissioner of

Salt and Abkari Revenue, Chicacole Sub Division.

Sir,

With reference to your foot-note No. 710, dated 23rd February 1894 communicating for compliance copy of Board's Proceedings requesting to obtain certain further information from Mr. Rhenius in regard to his claim for Exchange Compensation Allowance, I have the honour to answer the two questions raised by the Board.

My father came out about 1843 or 1844 with his brother the late Rev. C. Rhenius, Garrison Chaplain, Fort Saint George. He came out on speculation as many young men did in those days and do now, his two other brothers remaining at home in Edinburgh. He joined the Postal Department and after a service of about 30 years retired in 1877 or 1878 under the 55 years' rule, and as he had a large family of growing up children he was unable to realize his hope of going home just then; but settled in Bangalore till he died in 1888.

My father was never domiciled in India; but always looked to Scotland as his home as I do now and where it is my intention to settle eventually. I certainly can never call India my home, though I have undergone enforced residence owing to unfavourable circumstances.

I have etc.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Separate Revenue),

Dated 18th October

189 8

Mis. No. 4147.

Read the following letter from C.E. Rhenius Esquire, Inspector of Salt, Abkari and Customs Department, Ponnani Circle, No. 2868 dated 17th September 1898:-

"In obedience to orders contained in Board's Proceedings No. 750, dated 3rd September 1898 (S.R.) forwarding a printed form of questions relating to Exchange Compensation Allowance and directing me to return the same duly answered direct to the Board without delay, I have the honour to enclose the same duly answered".

Resolution.

Submitted to Government with reference to
A para 2 of Government Order No. 491, Financial, dated 24th June 1897.

2. In December 1893 Mr. Rhenius preferred his claim to Exchange Compensation Allowance under the old rules. In answer to certain questions put to him at the time by the Board he stated in his letter No. 219, dated March 1894 (copy enclosed) that his father came to India in 1843 or 1844, that he retired after a service of about 30 years in the Postal Department in 1877 or 1878 under the 55 years' rule, and that he lived in Bangalore till his death in 1888. His claim was rejected on the ground that his father had acquired an Indian domicile.

B

3. From Mr. Rhenius' answers to the several questions contained in his application read above the Board considers that he comes under the head "Native of India" as defined in para 4 of the Government of India Resolution No. 2433 Ex, dated 31st May 1897, for the following reasons, and as such is not eligible for the allowance.
