In the orders of Govt. of India, noted in the margin, it is stated that, in the case of Military Officers deputed for Plague duty, the whole of their pay & allowances should be debited to the Civil Dept. and that in the case of officers temporarily employed on Plague duty, (their services being retained in the Military Dept.) whose services are not formally transferred to Civil Dept, only such Extra pay & allowance as they would be entitled to, in connection with Plague duty, will be debited to the Civil Dept, their Staff pay & allowances being debited to Military

On enquiry at the Pay Examiner's office, it would appear that Mr. Trench, who is one of the officers referred to by the Accountant Genl, this is Dorij duty at Nasik in Salem Dt, & was paid in the Military Deptd only upto the date of his relief in that Deptd. & this last pay certificate was also sent to him. It will also appear that in the case of Military officers transferred to Civil Deptd for plague duty, the Military deptd ceases to pay them from the date of their relief.

The pregoing information has been gathered by a clerk whom I sent over to the Irish Accounts Office to make personal enquiries. It is clear I think that the pay & allowances of these officers, who services have been placed at the disposal of this Govt, will be a Provincial charge
