No. 6887 Mis.

Read the following letter from E.A. Elwin Esq., Collector of Bellary, D Dis No. 270D/acc of 98, dated 22nd November 1898:-

With reference to para 3 of B.P. No. 6206 Mis, dated 20th October 98, I have the honor to explain the large variations pointed out in the above as follows:-

*Left 4435
14-11-98*

The BP was transferred in original to Mr F.D. and that Dept has sent it to Mr A.G.

Special Well rules 4 per cent Debit of Rs 14957-10-5.

When the balance under Special Well rules was distributed between 3 and 4 per cents in the Loans statement, it was found that a sum of Rs 14957-10-5 was erroneously included under 3 per cent instead of 4 per cent in the Treasury account. Necessary adjustment on this account having been effected in the books of the Accountant-General for 1897-98, this sum was included in the figures furnished by the Accountant-General as debit under 4 per cent and credit under 3 per cent.

Special Well rules 3 per cent credit of Rs 14982-5-4.

A sum of Rs 14957-10-5 was shown as receipts for 1897-98 as explained above. A sum of Rs 8-4-1 was erroneously credited to I-Land Revenue instead of to this head in the account for March 1897. Necessary adjustment on this account has included under receipts for the year by the Accountant.

Accountant-General. While the alteration was made in the Loans Statement for June 98 by decreasing the opening balance.

A sum of Rs 16-6-10 was erroneously credited to ordinary rules, at 6½ per cent instead of to this head in the accounts for February 98. Necessary adjustment on this account having been made in the books of the Accountant-General for March 1898 and communicated to this office in June 1898, this amount was included in the figures furnished by him, while necessary alterations were made in the Loans Statement for June '98 by increasing the amount in cols 14 and 15 receipts up to the month. Hence the gross difference of Rs 14982-5-4.

Resolution:-

Submitted to Government, with reference to the concluding sentence of para 2 of G.O. No. 324, Financial, dated 24th September 1898, forwarded with the endorsement of the Revenue Department, No. 4062 Mis, dated 11th October 1898.

2. As pointed out in para 3 of Board's Proceedings No. 6206, dated 20th October 1898, the final figures for March 1898 for Bellary showed, as compared with the preliminary figures, an increase of Rs 14957-10-8 in the disbursement under the Special Well Rules, 4 per cent, and an increase of Rs 14982-5-4 in the receipts under Special Well Rules, 3 per cent. The former increase is reported to be due to an erroneous debit of the amount in the Treasury accounts to 3 per cent instead of to 4 per cent. The necessary adjustment was made in the Accountant-General's books by debit of the amount to 4 per cent and credit to 3 per cent. This explains also the increase of Rs 14957-10-5 in the receipts under 3 per cent. The further increase of Rs 24-10-11 under 3 per cent represents an adjustment in the Accountant-General's books, of Rs 8-4-1 erroneously credited to I-Land Revenue instead of to this head in the accounts for March '97, and of Rs 16-6-10 erroneously credited to ordinary Rules, 6½ per cent instead of to this head in the accounts for February 1898.

The necessary adjustments were, it is reported, made in the Collector's statement for June 1898 by diminishing the balance in the former case and by increasing the amount under receipts in the latter case.
