CURRENT No. 3401

Local and Municipal Department,

Ootacamund, dated 23rd Sept: 99.

From,

Murray Hammick Esquire, I. C. S.,

Acting Secretary to Government,

Local and Municipal Department.

To,

The Hon'ble Mr. G. Stokes, I. C. S.,

Chief Secretary to Government,

Financial Department.

Sir,

A W/o. W 935-6 26.899

As Special Commissioner, Tinnevelly and Madura, I reported in letter C No. 2, dated 21st June 1899, that I had entertained two peons on Rs 9 and 7 respectively. A proposition statement in respect of these peons and the rest of the establishment entertained by me was submitted with my letter Dis. No. 37, dated 26th July, and was sanctioned in G.O. A Nos. 935-936 dated the 28th August last. The peons referred to belong to the permanent staff of the Local and Municipal Department, drawing the above-mentioned salaries. While at Ootacamund, both before they were taken by me and since their return from Tinnevelly, they have been drawing the usual hill allowance of Rs 5 each. In consequence of their appointment under the Special Commissioner, they have been deprived of that allowance for the period of their service under him. In the rapid journeys they made with the Special Commissioner, they had to incur expenses which would not be sufficiently recompensed by the travelling allowance they are entitled to under the Civil Service Regulations. I have the honour therefore to request that sanction may be accorded to their being allowed for the period of their special duty salaries which would be equivalent to their Secretariat pay plus hill allowance or Rs 14 and 12 respectively. It is understood that when Mr. Meyer was on deputation at Ootacamund one of his peons taken from the Secretariat drew the Ootacamund allowance in addition to his pay and travelling allowance.

2. A sum of Rs 202 has been provided in the estimate of charges on account of the deputation for establishment charges for a period of two months. The establishment, however, having been in existence for less than a month and a half, there would be left unspent out of the above provision a sum which would be more than enough to meet the proposed increase.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Acting Secretary to Government.
