NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 1058, FINANCIAL,

Letters from the Surgeon-General, No. T-8—554, dated 14th September 1899, and No. T-8—596, dated 25th September 1899.

Note for the Chief Secretary—

Lieutenant-Colonel (then Surgeon-Major) Wilkins' claim to exchange compensation allowance under the old rules was rejected in G.O., No. 648, Financial, dated the 27th August 1894, on the ground that he has an Indian domicile—the sole test under those rules. India's "General Principles" in G.O., No. 901, Financial, dated 15th August 1899, however, admit him to the allowance under the new rules; for under rule III (b) of those principles "A man is not a Statutory Native . . . if he was out of India for some appreciable period (not less than a year) after the age of ten and before he entered Government service." Lieutenant-Colonel Wilkins spent 2½ years in England after his 10th year and before entering Government service. He is therefore not a Statutory Native, and as he was appointed to the Indian Medical Service in England, he is eligible for the allowance under the new rules. There must be several other cases of officers in the Indian Medical Service whose claims under the new rules are admissible with reference to this recent ruling of India.

or their Parents left India. It is a great hardship that one should suffer, because his Father lived at a time (viz 1815-1871-) when it was almost impossible to leave India. Since '70 the difficulties gradually lessened, & naturally hundreds of men who leave India now, could never have done so before. My Father had every hope of retiring in England or Australia, but a heavy pecuniary loss nearly at the end of his service - & which hastened his death, prevented his doing so. & in consequence of this, I have had to deprive myself in many ways to keep out of debt - & even now at the end of 26 years service, I have barely saved enough to pay my passage to England on my retirement.

In conclusion, I can but hope that some consideration be given to me, for misfortunes that were not under my control.
