Gadsden, Superintendent of the Central Jail, Coimbatore, is entitled to exchange compensation allowance under the new rules, and that the Government of India consider that his circumstances are such as to render it equitable to waive (in his case) the technical objection of Indian domicile which led to his disqualification under the old rules. Sir,

With reference to the Resolution of the Government of India, Finance & Commerce Department, No. 4847 Ex., d/ 5th November 1898, I have the honour to submit, in original, an application for Compensation of Exchange allowance from Mr. E. H. Gadsden, Superintendent, Central Jail, Coimbatore, to which is appended his answers to the questions specified in the Appendix to G.O. No. 13 Financial dated 6th January 1898.

2. Mr. Gadsden's claim to the allowance, in arrears, viz from the 1st August 1895 to 31st March 1897 is again put forward, supported by facts mentioned in the application, and as already represented in previous correspondence on the subject, I strongly recommend the claim for arrears of allowance to the favourable consideration of Government.

Sir.

With reference to your Memorandum No. 6519 dated 23rd December 1898, I beg to submit my claim to the Exchange Compensation Allowance, in the form laid down in the Appendix to G.O. No. 13 Financial, dated 6th January 1898.

2. I further beg that Government may be asked to sanction payment to me of the Exchange Compensation Allowance for the period during which I ceased to draw the Allowance, up to the date that the new Rules came into force, viz. from the 1st August 1895 to the 31st March 1897. I base my claim to the Allowance, in arrears, on the following facts.-

(a). When the Exchange Compensation Allowance Rules were first brought out, I drew the Allowance on the authority of an Officer qualified under those Rules to grant the necessary certificate.

(b). Early in 1894, the question of domicile having arisen, my case was referred to Government in your letter dated the 7th April, with that of two other Officers, and Government in their G.O. No. 425 of 1st June 1894, decided that the other two Officers were entitled to the Allowance, and called for a report on my case. I was subsequently informed that my claim had been referred to the Govt. of India for orders. As far as I am aware no orders on my case have ever been received from the Govt. of India. The only difference between the claims of the other two Officers and my own, was that their respective fathers retired to England while they were in their minority, whilst my father retired after I attained my majority. I respectfully submit that my claims to the Allowance were fully equal to their's. We were all sons of Military Officers and were appointed to the Government service in India, and served in the same capacity, but I was deprived of the Allowance on a question of domicile which had subsequently to be abandoned by the Govt. of India, as inequitable.

(c). I continued to draw the Allowance pending the order of the Govt. of India, but on the 26th June 1895 the Acct. General addressed the Govt. enquiring whether he should continue to pass the Allowance to me or not. In G.O. No. 525 of 16th July 1895 the Govt. ordered that the payment of the Exchange Compensation Allowance should not be made to me pending the decision of the Govt. of India on my claim. I therefore ceased to draw the Allowance from the 31st July 1895 and have not drawn it since.

(d). I am given to understand that my claims to the Allowance under the Rules which came into force from the 1st April 1897 is beyond question, and I beg that Govt will take into consideration the very strong claims that I have to the Allowance from the time that I ceased to draw it. The question of domicile worked very hardly on me. All my European brother Officers in the Jail Department drew the Allowance without interruption, and it was even allowed to the Jailor who was serving under me. I may also add that many Officers in the Police Department who joined the Govt. service under precisely similar circumstances as myself, have drawn the Allowance from the commencement, and have never had their claim to it questioned.

I have the honor to be,

Sir
