NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 1165, FINANCIAL, DATED 27TH OCTOBER 1899.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Adverting to G.O., No. 782, Marine, dated 18th August 1899, in which the Government of India has decided that Port officers are entitled to the benefits of the exchange compensation allowance rules, please let me know whether the applications from individual officers, submitted under Memorandum No. 371, Financial, dated 4th February 1899, should be transferred to the Financial Department for disposal; or whether any, and if so, what action is required in the Marine Department.

2. It is thought that any expression of opinion in the Marine Department on a matter which has to be decided in the Financial Department would be ultra licitum.

W. B. WINTON.
12-8-99.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

To Financial u.o.

For the Chief Secretary—

It has been the rule to deal with individual applications for admission to exchange compensation allowance in Financial (please see paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 491, Financial, dated 24th June 1897, and paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 901, Financial, dated 15th August 1899.) Other departments, such as Revenue, usually deal with these cases of officers under them in the first instance, and, after seeing that the information is complete, send them over (u.o.) to Financial. There seems, it is submitted, to be no reason why the Secretary in the Marine Department should not express his opinion on claims of officers under him, and as long as the (now) recognised form of communication between Secretariat departments on such matters is adopted—i.e., as long as the papers pass between departments of the Secretariat u.o.,—there should be no complications. Under the recognised procedure in such matters, no claim of an officer considered eligible by the Secretary in the Marine Department would be rejected without first sending the papers to the Secretary.

None. Certainly.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

From the Presidency Port Officer, dated 19th May 1899, No. 1713/188-G.
,, ,, ,, 13th June ,, ,, 1713/208-G.

Port Officers and Harbour Masters can,* if personally eligible, draw exchange compensation allowance.

The question of personal eligibility, therefore, alone remains to be considered.

Applying the "General Principles"† laid down by the Government of India for deciding this question, it is found that the following officers, having been "born out‡ of India," are eligible for exchange compensation allowance:—

Mr. M. Woodhouse.
,, T. H. Baker.
,, H. S. Brown.
,, H. J. Boas.
,, J. H. Batt.
,, N. Corfield (Harbour Master).
,, H. C. Taylor (do.).

Mr. G. A. Evans (Harbour Master).
,, W. S. Carlyon.
,, N. A. W. Hamilton.
,, F. Icely.
,, G. Leverett.
,, R. L. Swann.
,, G. W. Wicks.

* G.Os., No. 782, Marine, dated 18th August 1899, and No 903, Marine, dated 25th September 1899.

† G.O, No. 901, Financial, dated 15th August 1899.

‡ Rule III (a) of the "General Principles."

As regards Messrs. J. P. James and H. D. Baddeley, these officers were born in India, but are eligible under rule III (b), having passed out of India an appreciable period (more than a year) after the age of ten and before they entered the Government service.

Page 3 of G.O., No. 901, Financial, dated 15th August 1899.

Mr. J. M. Simpson was also born in India and his parents both died in this country. He was 46 years of age when he was first appointed to the Government service and he says he spent 24 years out of this period in England. Whether this entitles him to the allowance is for the Financial Department to decide.

Mr. Deacon, the Sub-Marine Diver, will, it is presumed, continue to draw the allowance under rule XIII of the rules issued with the Government of India Resolution No. 2422-Ex., dated 31st May 1897, subject to the restriction therein laid down regarding readjustment.

W. B. deWinton.

Financial Department.

Financial Department u.o.

For the Chief Secretary—

As pointed out in the Marine Department note, all the claims to exchange compensation allowance of Port Officers and Harbour Masters dealt with in these papers are clear except in the case of Mr. J. M. Simpson. This officer, however, although born in India, left the country when seven years of age and did not return until he was 31. He is not a Statutory Native for the purpose of the rules under rule III (b) of the "General Principles" in G.O., No. 901, Financial, dated 15th August 1899.

The presumption of the Marine Department as regards Sub-Marine Diver Deacon is correct.

NOTE FOR THE Chief Secretary.

It has been the rule to deal with individual applications for admission to Exchange Compensation Allowance in Financial - please see paragraph 2 of G.O.No.491,Financial,dated 24th June 1897,and paragraph 2 of G.O. No. 901,Financial,dated 15th August 1899 - Other departments,such as Revenue, usually deal with these cases of officers under them in the first instance and after seeing that the information is complete, send them over (u.o) to Financial.There seems,it is submitted, to be no reason why the Secretary in the Marine Department should not express his opinion on claims of officers under him, and as long as the (now-)recognised form of communication between Secretariat Departments on such matters is adopted - i.e. as long as the papers pass between Departments of the Secretariat u.o. - there should be no complications.Under the recognised procedure in such matters,no claim of an officer considered eligible by the Secretary
