The Secretary to the Govt of India,

Sir, May I thank you for cooperation in the preparation of the Polician's Handbook by asking whether you can send me your Annual Reports or other public documents issued during 1899?

The Polician's Handbook has hitherto consisted of Digests of State Documents issued by the Imperial Govt.; but I am desirous of including in future numbers some areas of important papers published by the Indian Government.

If you could see your way to add my name to any list of those to whom such papers are sent for public use I should be very greatly obliged; & I should further be glad if they could be posted to me direct 59 Cheapside Place, Baywater, London W. May I assume that — in view of the use to which the documents will be put — it will not be necessary for me to purchase them through the Government printers?

SUBJECT.

Free supply of reports to the Editor of the Politician's Handbook

FOR ORDERS.

The Editor of the "Politician's Handbook", published in England applies for the free supply of Annual reports and other public documents issued by Govt during 1899. The "Politician's Handbook" appears to be useful in its way, containing in a handy form ~~some~~ useful information which is scattered over a large number of publications. The publication appears to be an annual one.

G.O. No 1080 Dated 19.11.98 directed that "in future", no copies of general or departmental Administration reports should be supplied gratis to proprietors or Editors of newspapers, English or vernacular, except to such journals as were already on the list. It is for orders whether the firmed his request for reports etc

Govt Press. If it is decided to grant the present application, the current may it is sent, be communicated to the Superintendent Press for compliance in respect of such of the departmental annual reports, the reviews on which have been or will be placed on the E.T., and to other departments of the Secretariat for disposal as regards their reports.
As regards public documents, the Editor might be placed on the E.T. on the usual conditions (vide paper flagged). He requests that the reports etc may be posted to London to his address. This will cost an appreciable sum in postage, and if Govt consents to give it books gratis, the recipients should pay their postage or make some arrangement with ~~some~~ ^{an} agent office in India to take delivery of
