Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue).

Forest No. 33 Misc., dated 12th. January 1899.

Read the following endorsement of H.A.Gass Esq., ag.Conservator of Forests, Southern Circle, dated 18th.December 1898, No. 1690 on -- letter from C.J.Weir Esq., ag.Collector of Madura, dated 8th. Novr. 1898, R.on C. No.146 S. requesting that Foresters and Rangers may be included in the list of officers who are eligible for the supply of measuring tapes.

Forwarded.

It is necessary that measuring tapes should be supplied to Extra Asst. Conservators, Rangers, Dy.Rangers and Foresters and other employees on the temporary establishment- such as Depot keepers, &c. entrusted with timber works.

RESOLUTION:-

In the Board's Reference Forest No.354 dated --- 5-9-1898 ~~25-10-1898~~ on which G.O.No.934 Financial dated 25-10-1898 was passed Government was requested to authorize the issue of measuring tapes -- to Forest Officers generally and the fact that the Dt.Forest Officers are the indenting officers under the stationery rules apparently led Government to enter the words "Dt.Forest Officers" under the head --- "Department for which provided" in the G.O.quoted. The Board therefore considers that Dt.Forest Officers may include in their indents the requirements of their subordinates provided that the prescribed scale of supply,viz, one per each officer for every five years, is -- not exceeded.
