It has been directed in G.O. No. 1080 & 19th Nov 1898 that no proprietors or Editors of Newspapers, English or Vernacular, except those now on the free list, should in future, be supplied with copies of general or departmental administration reports, gratis. In the connection, attention is also invited to the orders & notes in G.O. 1190 & 31.10.99, passed on a similar request of the Editor of the "Politician's Handbook".

The present application is not from the Editor or Proprietor of any newspaper, but is on behalf of a public institution - the New York Public Library - and it is for orders whether an exception may ^{not} be made in its favour. In case the application is granted.

NOTE FOR THE

(S. Part 2)

C.N. 4007/99

With reference to H. M.'s H. S. notes, a copy of the Distribution list of the Madras General Administration report is submitted for perusal. Institutions which are purely public libraries have been marked with blue chalk in the list, while institutions of a different character which are supplied with copies of the report are marked with red chalk.

I think a copy may be sent. Govt can always make it a rule that copies should be paid for, - if such a course is necessary.

MT 23. 11. 98.

Dr. 11/11/98

While on this subject it ^{has} appears to be desirable that the Distribution list should be examined, as there are ^{some} ~~various~~ institutions & officers who may merely lay the Report on their shelves & send it out on waste paper periodically. Perhaps the Special Duty Officer might be asked to look into this, after the current has been disposed of.

This is the done. 11/11/98
