General Remarks.—The estimate is framed on the assumption that there is no imminent danger of plague breaking out in this district during the ensuing year, seeing that it has not re-appeared in North Arcot. The Regulations are also strictly enforced at the ports of Cuddalore Old Town and Porto Novo at which passengers by sea are allowed to land, and all the railway stations in the district have either paid or unpaid passport-issuing officers. Temporary establishment is, however, provided for Chidambaram and Tiruvannamalai for safeguarding the towns on the occasions of annual festivals.

- (b) For Tiruvannamalai.
- (c) For repair of plague sheds at Tiruvannamalai.
- (d) Rs. 816-5-10, which have to be recovered from Local Funds on receipt of orders on this office Ref. on - G.O. 1210-2.
- No. 113-P—Acct., dated 28th September 1899, to the Local and Municipal Department, are included in this.
- (e) With the exception of Rs. 36, which is the pay of the three servants employed at Tiruvannamalai to watch the plague sheds, and Rs. 20, being the plague allowance, the balance, Rs. 2,001-5-4, has to be paid to the Chairman, Municipal Council, Tiruvannamalai, being the charges incurred in connection with the late railway inspection station.

Includes rent of land occupied by plague shed at Tiruvannamalai

The actual expenditure up to the 30th Sept 99 according to the A.G.'s statement is Rs. 2188. This is ascertained in the A.G.'s office. The expenditure formerly incurred by the Tiruvannamalai Municipality, which was ordered to be transferred to Government. The transfer has not yet been made in the accounts of that office. The collected figure has therefore been adopted in the estimates.
