PUBLICITY DEPT.

My dear Sir
I lately sent
you through the India Office here three boxes of Books for distribution to various Libraries - In the biggest of them at the top
was put my Military Book of Common Prayer

Registration makes transmission more secure; but the Post Office is not responsible for loss unless the article is insured. Currency notes or a part of a Currency note must be registered. Coin, jewels, &c., must be insured. An article may be insured up to Rs. 500 at a Branch Office and up to Rs. 1,000 at other offices. Postage and registration fee (2 annas) must be prepaid in stamps. Sender should write his name and address in lower left-hand corner of envelope. Acknowledgment of delivery of a registered letter or parcel can be obtained by sender on presentation of the envelope in stamps, or an attested copy of addressee's receipt can be obtained at any time within six months on payment of 3 annas.

The public are recommended to use the cloth-lined embossed registration envelopes available at every Post Office. The price of these envelopes covers registration fee, but not postage.
