FOR ORDERS.

Existing orders require that copies of all official publications—those of a confidential and ephemeral nature excepted—should be sent to the India Office and British Museum and that Quarterly Lists of them should be sent to the Govt. of India. In the case of publications issued from the Govt. Press these orders are regularly carried out. But in the case of those (few) publications which are issued from Presses other than the Govt. Press this is not the case. It is submitted that these publications should not be excluded from the operation of the orders re "transmission".

Two cases in point have lately arisen (1) The Inspector-General of Prisons has issued the

Sub

G.O. No. 442, Finl. dt. 13-5-98. A

Sub Jail Manual thro' the Lawrence Asylum Press; and (2) the High Court has issued the Civil and Criminal Justice Reports thro' the Scottish Press. If these had been ^{printed} published in the Government Press the Superintendent would, a fortnight before the issue have intimated the ~~the~~ approaching issue to Financial and have taken orders as to how many copies should be sent to the India Office. At the end of the quarter, he would include them in his quarterly list. But, since, these publications were not published at the Govt. Press, they have not been subjected to this procedure.

It happens, however, that the Inspector-General has thought of the India Office and allotted to it 5 copies of the Sub Jail Manual; and in the case of the Civil and Criminal Justice Reports, the Secretary of State has fixed 10 as the ~~number~~ ^{number} of copies to be sent to the India Office. Thus, in these two cases, one part (re actual transmission) of the orders has been followed but ~~these~~ and similar publications do not get into the Quarterly lists prepared by the Supt. of the Govt. Press.

It is submitted that it would be well if a general order were passed directing Heads of Departments to intimate to Financial thro' the Sect. Department concerned the approaching issue issue of every publication which they issue from a press other than the Govt. Press. Orders may then be passed on the intimation according to the procedure laid down in para. 2 of G.O. No. 442, Financial, dated 13th May 1898.

Mr. Thorne has in this way of indicating that these publications come under review. But why are they printed at Presses other than the Govt.?

~~The~~ The Sub Jail Manual has it is understood printed by the L.A. Press as it is convenient for the I.O. to have the work done at Ooty.

The H.C.'s reports will in future be printed at the Govt. Press (under G.O. 1178 of 1898) d. 6.11.98) d. 16/1/99

NR in the CS

Please see the remarks of judicial overleaf in reply to the CS's query at A on page 3 of these notes. Although the High Court will in future print the Civil and Criminal Justice Reports to the Govt Press, it seems necessary to issue the proposed draft order to guard against any chance of a publication being overlooked. The two publications now in question were merely mentioned as cases which have recently occurred. There may be others.
