EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

* The decrease is due to the horse allowance granted to the plague inspectors having been excluded from this amount by the order of Government, the horse allowance is now shown against item 'plague allowance'.

* The decrease is due to some of the servants having been paid ^{only} for a part of the month from the date on which they were actually entertained.

* The decrease is due to the provision being altered in accordance with the existing circumstances.

* The increase is due to the arrears of deputation allowance viz Rs 134 having been paid to the Special Deputy Collector. This amount was included in the last month's bill but was excluded by Government as an explanation was then given in the estimate.
