The Chief Secretary to Government, Madras

Sir,
As one of the confidential and most devoted servants of His Highness Marthanda Varma B.A., First Prince of Travancore, I have very great pleasure to send herewith a copy of "A Narration of His Highness' Tour in Upper India". As shown in the paper it places on record one of the most extensive tours undertaken by a member of the Travancore Royal Household and was originally intended for private circulation only. But the ever-increasing price with which interest has of late come to be felt in India & the Indians, and the brilliant sketches the work gives of the picturesque of the country.

and of everyday life of the diverse population, have made the circle of its readers considerably large and consequently the work has not only lost its private character but has become also in course of time more public than publications of the kind. I therefore venture to hope that it will be considered neither inappropriate nor unacceptable if I request that you will be good enough to forward it to the trustees of the British Museum before closing I cannot however avail this opportunity of making any acknowledgments to you for your kindness in sending my "Jubilee Leaves".

I remain,

Yours truly,
S. Ramaswami Aiyar
