My dear Mr, Tawney,

Some two years ago when I spoke to you regarding my wish of giving away to suitable places a quantity of good and for India in many cases very valuable books, you were so good as to say that you would interest yourself with the authorities at the India Office in so disposing of them. I have three cases - 2 one dozen cases, and two dozen cases ready packed for you. I enclose a list of the books for your inspection, and should you desire them I will have the 3 & portable cases sent you:

I trust my book plates may not be removed, and that on each which has my name on it may be added Presented to so & so I am sure Mr. Thurston at the Madras Central Museum will "con amore" See to the distribution when they reach India.

I am, Believe me,

Very truly yours

(Sd) George G. Pearse,

General.

P.S.
On the cases, outside on labels, are specifications of the books inside.

My dear Mr. Tawney,

When my servants came to close the 3 cases of books presented by me, and which have safely reached the Superintendent India Store Depot, they found they could put in many more. I therefore sent a supplementary quantity, many being rare and good and useful works.

Perhaps you would kindly make this known to Sir Arthur Godley, with reference to his to me of the 8th Instant, R. & L. 2071.

Per Contra I give a List of the Supplementary works I have sent.

Yours v. truly,

Supplementary List of books. Presented by Genll. G.G. Pearse C.B. R.H.A. for Madras.

Centenary Review. Ben. Asia. Society.

1784, 1883. Good.

The Treaties, Sunnuds &ca. of Southern India. - Rare and Valuable.

The Abbé de Guyon's. English translation of the History of the East Indies. 2 Vols. 1757. I have always found this far more valuable than any English History on the E. Indies.

No. 35. Joun Bo. Ro. Asia Socy. 1877.

The Andhra Coinage. Very good.

Madras Journal of Literature for 1881. The Vijyannuggur Dynasty.

Transactions of the 9th Oriental Congress 2nd Vols.

NOTE FOR THE C.A.

Of the publications presented by General Pearse for the use of the Libraries in Southern India, 48 have been selected by the Principal Librarian, Connemara Public Library for his Library & ~~f~~ They are marked in the accompanying list. Of the remain[illegible] books, a few may b[illegible]cured for the Secretaria[illegible] Library, Madras and Ootacamund, which are noted below. The number of copies [illegible]ady available in the Secretariat Library of the books presented by Genl Pearse is shewn in column 3 of the list.

(1) Centenary Review of the Asiatic Society of Bengal from 1784 to 1883. This is a valuable book of which there is no copy in the Secretariat Library. It may be taken for our Library ~~at~~ here here as at Madras.

(7) + (8) 9 volumes of the Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society, 1889-1897 and 9 Vols of Numismatic Chronicle, 1889-97. Though good, they belong to the class "periodicals". Their use will be limited, unless the procuring of the future issues is also arranged for. Perhaps they need not be taken for the use of the Secretariat Library.

Take them
Cml

(9) General Cunningham's Archaeological Survey of India – 1st six Vols. In view of the incompleteness of the set, perhaps they need not be taken. We have a complete set of 23 Volumes in the Secretariat Library.

Cml

(13) Coorg Inscriptions by Lewis Rice, an important archaeological publication. There are no copies in the Secretariat Library, & the Volume may be taken.

Cml

(14) Kanarese Dynasties by Fleet. This is an interesting historical work, of which we have 2 copies in the Secretariat Library at Madras. As, however, there are no copies in the library at Ooty, perhaps this may be taken to be placed there.

Take one for the Library at Ooty. Cml

(16) Cowasji Patell's Chronology. Is a book useful for purposes of reference. There is a copy in the library at Madras, but not at Ooty. The book may be taken for the latter.

Cml

(18) The Oriental Manuscripts of Fort St George, by Revd William Taylor, 3 Vols. We have in the Secretariat Library at Madras two copies of Vol I, two copies of Vol II and one copy of Vol III. This set (presented) may be secured for the Secretariat Library at Ootacamund, no copies being available there at present.

One complete set. There are 2 copies of the 1st two Vols
Cml

(30) Hints to Coin Collectors

in Southern India, Parts I & II, by Capt. R. H. Campbell Luf-nell, 1888. This publication also may be taken for the Secretariat Library at Ootacamund where there are no copies of it at present. We have 2 copies in the Madras Library.

Cwl

(44) On some new discoveries (archaeological) in Southern India, by Robert Sewell, 1884. This is a small publication extending only over 7 pages, but is interesting. Perhaps it may be taken for the Secretariat Library, Madras. We have no copies of it.

Cwl

(95) The India Office Record, by F. C. Danvers, 1890. Purports to contain a brief account of the results of his Examn during the 6 years ending ~~[illegible]~~ 1890 of the records relating to India & the East India Company in the possession of the Secy of State for India. We have no copies of the book & it may be taken.

This is not what General Pearse asks

Submitted that there are very many books without General Pearse's book-plate and that only a few bear them. In these circumstances, it is feared that it would be neater to get label printed.
