OFFICE NOTE.

With reference to G.O.,

A No. 1162 Financial, dated 3rd December 1898, the Supt., Govt. Press submits that the Inspector General of Ordnance has been addressed and his instructions are being awaited as to the disposal of the articles referred to therein. Meanwhile the Superintendent begs to bring to the notice of Government that there are certain articles, which on account of their usefulness, it is desirable to take over at a valuation. They are

If these articles are purchased it would cost the press more than twice the valuation fixed.
Sanction is therefore solicited for retaining them, and for their value (Rs. 355-2-0) being adjusted by book debit.
