EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

The amounts sanctioned in G.O. No. 1259 Financial dated 28th December 1899 under "Local" and "Municipal" are adopted in Col. 1 of the estimate.

2. The details of salaries and establishments shown in the estimate under Municipal are the same as those contained in the G.O. referred to above, except that the pay of the Sanitary Inspector on plague duty at Visagapatam is not Rs 35— as therein shown, but Rs 41 during the current year and would be Rs 43 per mensem during the official year 1899-1900, since, as already explained in this office letter to the Plague Commissioner, D.O. No. 20 dated 4th January 1899, he was entertained in 1895 on an initial pay of Rs 35 with an annual increment of Rs 2 till the maximum pay of Rs 45 is reached.

The item "other allowances" relates to the house allowance granted to this official at Rs 15 per mensem.

3. In accordance with the instructions of the Plague Commissioner issued in his Proceedings No. 461 dated 21st February last, the Traffic Superintendent of the East Coast Railway has been requested to supply all the station masters in this District with passers for pricking the tickets of arrivals from infected areas. Of the 18 Railway stations in the District, four are within Municipal limits, the remaining 14 being in the jurisdiction of the President District Board. Neither the official nor the Municipalities have made in the estimate provision for the cost of these instruments as it is not definitely known. The expenditure will therefore be shown when actually incurred.

The Plague Commissioner, Madras,

EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

4. The amounts shown in column 6 of the estimate under 'Municipal' are the totals of the figures given by the Chairman of the Municipal Councils and do not include allotments for the District not under observation.

5. As the establishments entertained by the Municipalities are for carrying out precautionary measures in connection with plague, they cannot be reduced at present.
