note for Chief Secy.
 Will you please see whether there is anything to prevent the date of birth of Chaplains being entered with the account of their services in the History of Equestrian Officers. I wanted to check the archdeacon's age & find it is not given; nor is that of any other chaplain, while the Bishop's ^{age} is given.
 The informⁿ should be recorded in the list unless there is some reason to the contrary I do not know.

Note for the CS

The Statutory ~~provisions~~ ~~the~~ enactments re the appl. of Bishop of the Diocese are printed on pages 44-49 of the Handbook of Procedure & Precedents. The question of age does not enter into that of the tenure of the appl.
The date of birth was inserted in the Local History of Services in 1891 (please see A.G. No. 710. 10. 91 in F.D. No. 1074 Fmt. 7 21. 10 91) It was evidently omitted in the ~~subsequent~~ case of Chaplain's with ref: to articles 663 and 664 of the C.S.R., as pointed out by the C.S. ~~But~~ The A.G. might perhaps be asked u.o. if he sees any objection to including the "Date of birth" in the cases of Chaplain's?

Yes: I think Govt ought to be able to ascertain at once the age of any of their servants.

Order.

Mis. It is observed that the "Date of Birth" is not entered in all the cases in the "History of Service" of Hazell and other officers.
In view of rendering the publication more complete for reference purposes, the Acct. Genl: will be requested to ^{state whether he can} arrange for this entry appearing in ~~the~~ the case of all officers whose services are included in the work.

A.G.

Note: Perhaps A.G. might be asked (u.o.) just whether he sees any difficulties in the way of this. The order will cover the cases of members of the D.C.S. also, whose dates of birth are not now given.

Cand

The dates of birth of members of the Indian List & more and Chaplains are not shown in the History of Services because the conditions of their service do not require their ages to be known for the purposes of the Leave & Pension rules.
 If Govt. desire this information to be included in the History of Services in future in respect of either or both of the classes of Officers mentioned this can be done without difficulty but it will involve additional work, especially at first, as the information is not now available in this office.
 As the ^{approximate} ages of members of the I.C.S. can be inferred from the dates of commena-ment of service, the insertion of this information might perhaps be dispensed with so far as they are concerned.
