High Court of Judicature,
Madras, 18th March 1899..

Oryzomys No. 738

FROM
A. L. Hannay, Esquire,
REGISTRAR OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE, Madras.

To
THE HONOURABLE MR. G. Stokes,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

HONOURABLE SIR,

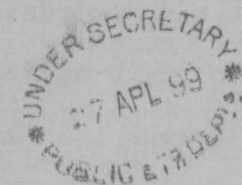

On the 26th March 1897, M. Varadarajulu Nayudu, 5th clerk of the District Munsif's Court of Ellore, applied to the District Munsif for six months' leave on loss of pay and for permission to take up an appointment in the Railway Department at Dharwar. The District Munsif gave the required permission and recommended to the District Court of Godavari that the leave should be given, without stating the purpose for which it had been applied for, and the District Judge granted his sanction. On the 2nd October 1897, the District Munsif recommended an extension of leave for six months and this was also sanctioned. In March 1898, the then acting District Munsif of Ellore granted a further extension for 6 months ~~and~~ and reported the matter to the District Court for sanction. The District Judge called upon the acting District Munsif to state the necessity for the further extension and on learning that the clerk was employed on foreign service refused to sanction an extension of leave and declared the appointment of the clerk in the District Munsif's Court of Ellore forfeited for want of sanction of the Local Government under Article 806, Civil Service Regulations. The clerk thereupon submitted a petition to the High Court praying that he might be permitted to revert to his appointment in the District Munsif's Court. The High Court directed that he should be allowed to rejoin if he did so forthwith. The clerk, however, was unable to rejoin his appointment until 1st September 1898.

2. The District Judge now requests that under Art. 464 of the Civil Service Regulations, the period of the clerk's absence without leave from 27th March to 1st September 1898 may be commuted retrospectively into leave without allowances. I am therefore directed to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of His Excellency the Governor in Council as required by the Article quoted.

I have the honour to be,
Honourable Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A. L. Hannay
20/3 99
Registrar.

Under article 463 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations Government may, if it thinks the circumstances are such as to justify the concession, declare that the clerk's previous service or any part of it shall not be forfeited.

For the C.S.

It is for order whether the course suggested in the A.G.'s note may be adopted - The facts are set out at length in the High Court's letter & the concession would appear to be justified as the clerk is ^{so much} ~~more~~ blame than as the Dist. Munsif

Correct
He may be allowed to commute his leave into leave without allowances as recommended by the High Court.
