THE entries in the column of "Present Scale" have been compared with the Registers of this office, and are correct, with the exception of the items altered in red ink.

The proposed increase is within the sanctioning powers of the Local Government.

The Board of Revenue have been asked to indicate specific savings from which the additional expenditure may be met in the event of its being borne by Government.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue), Misc.No.976 dated 8th March 1899.

Resolution.

In para 19 of the notes of Inspection of the Nellikuppam distillery, submitted to Government with Board's Proceedings No.293, dated 13th June 1895, the then Commissioners remarked that the only real and effectual remedy for the several serious defects in the distillery was the construction of a new one. Government in passing orders on the above directed, in para 3 of Government Order No.686, Revenue, dated 21st October 1895, that the remarks of Messrs Parry and Co. on this proposal and the final orders passed by the Board should be submitted for its information.

2. Messrs Parry and Co's decision to construct an entirely new distillery was made known to Government in para 11 of the petition to it, reported on in Board's Proceedings Misc.No. 1188, dated 17th March 1896. In the same month Messrs Parry and Co. submitted plans of a new distillery which they proposed to construct at Cuddalore, Old Town. Fresh plans had to be called for and these were received in July 1896 but, as the Board then expected to hear of the appointment of an expert in distillery matters, it deferred passing orders. The papers were placed before the Abkari Deputy Commissioner on his arrival and, under his directions, Messrs Parry and Co. submitted revised plans in August 1897, but proposed then to construct the distillery at Nellikuppam instead of at Cuddalore as they had originally intended. Permission was then granted to proceed with the building of the distillery which has now been completed.

3. Sanction was accorded for commencing distillation in it in Board's Proceedings Misc.No.70, dated 7th January 1899, Messrs Parry and Co. propose to work both the old and new distilleries at that place side by side for some time, to enable them to keep up supplies until the new distillery is in complete working order.

Accordingly the following additional officers have been posted for duty at the second distillery:-

One Assistant Inspector,

One Sub-Inspector,

One Petty Officer and

Six Peons.

The Assistant Inspector and the Petty Officer and peons have been provided from the men sanctioned respectively in Government Orders Nos.1365, Revenue, dated 8th December 1884, and No.810, Revenue, dated 21st November 1888. The Board requests that sanction may be accorded for entertaining the Sub-Inspector temporarily for six months from November 1898.

4. At the same time the Board requests the orders of Government whether the cost of the establishment entertained for the supervision of the new distillery should be borne by Government or recovered from Messrs Parry and Co. As the distillery has been built mainly at the instance of Government it does not seem proper to charge the firm.

5. A proposition statement in duplicate is submitted herewith for sanction.

Read also the following Accountant-General's Endorsement
No.T.sa.1/ 32 dated 6th April 1899.

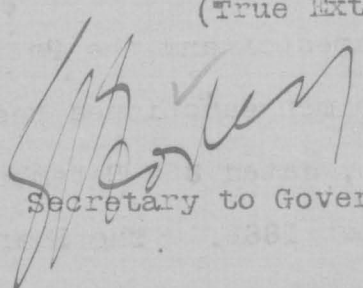

Forwarded to Government in continuation of this office endorsement No.A.D.S/18 dated 16th March 1899. It is too late now to sanction a re-appropriation for 1898-99.

-----++++++-----
Order thereon Misc.No.1587 dated 28th April 1899.

The proposition statement is sanctioned.

2. With reference to para 4 of its Proceedings, the Board will be informed that the cost of the establishment entertained for the supervision of the new distillery will be borne by Government.
