The UNDER SECRETARY of STATE for INDIA.

Sir,

I am directed to state that, with reference to the Despatch from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State, No. 21, Public (Records), dated the 20th December 1888, ten copies of the Madras Quarterly Civil List are at present forwarded to your address, the last supply having been furnished with my letter, R. No. 631, Public, dated the 8th May 1899. In order to secure uniformity of procedure in the transmission of official publications, the copies will, in future, if there is no objection, be addressed to the Registrar and Superintendent of Records, in conformity with the instructions contained in paragraph 5 of Lord Kimberley's Despatch, No. 6, Public (Records), dated the 4th May 1893, one of these copies being packed separately for the British Museum. These ten copies will be in addition to the two advance copies which will in future be forwarded in accordance with the despatch from the Secretary of State, No. 9, Public (Records), dated the 16th February 1899.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

NOTE FOR THE CA.

In 1878, with reference to a despatch from the Secretary of State, the Govt of India requested this Govt to forward one copy of every periodical civil list immediately on publication, to the Financial Secretary at the India Office. In G.O. No. 1480 Pub. 7/28 9/98 this request was communicated to the Accountant General, and he was directed to arrange for the transmission of the civil list through the Govt Press.

In 1898 the Secretary of State observed that, independently of the advance copy of each civil list and History of services of Gazetted officers sent to the address of the Financial Secretary at the India office, a supply of ten copies of the daily civil list, and two copies respectively of the Revenue & Pub. works Dept lists might be forwarded to the Record department there. He at the same time forwarded a statement of the contents of the files of the marginally noted lists in the India Office which had been incomplete, in view to the deficiencies being made up. This despatch was communicated to the Acct-General, & the Rev. & Pub. Wks Dept; and the available copies were obtained and forwarded to the Home Govt. with despatch no. 8 dy 10.5.89.

3 In despatch no. 9 Public (Record) dy 16 Feby 89 addressed to the Govt of India in the present current, the Secy of State, in view to the late receipt of a dy civil list of a province, requests issue of instructions for despatch to the India office at the earliest possible date after publication, of two copies of each departmental and Provincial civil list. The Secy of State observes that these advance copies are intended to be in supersession of the copy now forwarded to the Fin. Secretary, and directs that they should be addressed in future to the Registrar and Supdt of Records.

4 It does not appear from the Home despatch register that advance copies of the Quarterly civil list ~~required to be forwarded~~ are at present forwarded to the India office, at all events through the Chief Secretariat.

An old clerk in that office now on leave, who could possibly furnish information is reported to be not in Madras at present.

In dealing with the subject of transmission of Quarterly Civil lists to the India Office, the question naturally arises, whether they, as official publications printed at a press other than the Govt. Press, should not be brought under the operation of G.O. No. 184 Fin. dy 4.2.99.

It will be seen that in Bombay, Bengal and Assam, the Quarterly Civil lists are printed at the Govt. Press. They are no doubt therefore treated in those provinces as unregistered Govt. publications for purposes of transmission to the India office and the British Museum.

In Madras the Govt. allow the Lawrence Asylum Press to print the Quarterly Civil lists for profit by way of patronage. It is published by authority, under the supervision of the Accountant-General. The point for decision is whether the publication loses its official nature by being printed at a private press and should be treated as private. In the converse case of reports of the Countess of Dufferin Fund, and of the Victoria Zenana Hospital which are private publications printed at the Govt. Press free of cost, it was held that the fact of their issue from the Govt. Press does not entitle them to be regarded as official. If, by analogy, the Quarterly Civil List be regarded as falling within the category of official publications, it seems necessary to bring it under the operation of Govt. No. 184 Fin. & 4-2-88, and transmit copies to the India office and the British Museum packed and addressed in the usual way. The Supdt. Govt. Press is, however, of a different opinion – please see his telephone message flagged B. The point is submitted for orders. He remarks that as the Govt. does not pay for printing the publication, it does not come officially to his notice. This, however, it is submitted, signifies little, as he is only the transmitting agency, the Accountant-General being required by G.O. No 184 Fin. & 4-2-88 to take all the necessary action.

In case it is decided to treat the Quarterly Civil List as an official publication, submitted that paras 3, 4, & 5 of the draft put up below may be allowed to stand, as also the letter to the U.S. of State.
