From,

The Collector of Salt Revenue, Bombay

To,

The Commissioner of Customs, Salt,
Opium and Abkari

Camp Vengurla, 10th March 1899.

Sir,

I have the honour to solicit your attention to a rule in the Civil Service Regulations which operates dis--advantageously to the peons in the Bombay Salt Department as compared with those in the Northern India and Madras -- Salt Department with a request that should you think fit so to do you will move Government to amend the rule in - question.

2. Under Article 321, Civil Service Regulations, an officer of the Northern India Salt Revenue Department or of the Madras Salt and Abkari Department, whose pay does not exceed Rs. 20/ may while sick in hospital or while ---- receiving medical aid as an outdoor patient .. .. be allowed ..... .leave of absence for six months of which the three first months may be on full pay, and the remainder on half pay. An officer of the Bombay Salt --- Department does not come under Article 321 and his case has to be dealt with under Artide 320 which allows leave for six months on half pay only. It thus appears that for the first three months of what is known as Hospital leave leave the Bombay Salt peon only draws half the pay to which the Northern India or Madras Salt peon is entitled. I am not aware of any reason for the distinction drawn by the - Regulations between the Bombay Salt Department and the -- other Salt Departments in India and I trust that if the -- matter be brought to the notice of the Government of India the anomaly will be removed by the addition of the words - "Bombay Salt Department" in Article 321.

3. The point has come before me in the case of one of the peons in this Department who was not long ago beaten by smugglers when on duty at a Salt work. In consequence of the injuries received by him he was unable to return to duty for 19 days. During that period his absence had to be counted as Hospital leave and he was allowed half pay -- only. In addition therefore to receiving a beating while engaged in protecting the Government revenue he was also mulcted in half his pay for the time he was rendered by that beating unfit to resume his work.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

sd/ H. O. Quin

Ag. Collector of Salt Revenue.

Submitted to Government, Financial Department. - for favourable consideration.

2. The Undersigned does not know the reason for the distinction drawn between the Bombay Salt Department and the other Salt Departments in India; but in the ------- circumstances reported by the Collector he would strongly recommend that the addition in Article 321 of the Civil -- Service Regulations suggested by Mr. Quin may be made.

C.No.1895

N o t e

Under Art. 321 of the C.S.R., an officer of the Northern India Salt Revenue Department ~~,~~ or of the Madras Salt ~~and~~ Abkari Department whose pay does not exceed Rs.20, may, while sick in hospital, or while receiving medical aid as an out-door patient, be granted leave of absence for 6 months, of which the first three months may be on full pay and the remainder on half pay. On the other hand an officer of the Bombay Salt Dept. does not fall under Art. 321 and his case has to be dealt with under Art.320, which allows leave for 6 months on half pay only. The absence ~~In the case~~ of one of the Salt peons at Bombay, who was beaten by smugglers when on duty at a Salt work ~~his absence~~ was counted as hospital leave and he was given half pay only during that period under Art.320. The Govt. of Bombay accordingly requests to be informed of the circumstances under which the benefit of the provisions of Art.321 of the C.S.R. was extended to the officers of the Madras Salt and Abkari Dept., whose pay did not exceed Rs.20 per mensem.

2. In the first edition of the C.S.R. published in 1889, Art.321 applied only to officers of the Northern

Northern India Salt Revenue Dept. In November of the same year, the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue) requested that the Govt. of India might be moved to extend the provisions of Art.321 to Salt Officers of similar position in the Madras Presidency in view of the growing frequency of assaults upon officers of the Salt Dept., especially in Abkari cases. The matter was put before the Supreme Govt. who called for a fuller statement of the reasons for the proposal. On the further information being furnished the Govt. of India sanctioned the extension of the provisions of Art. 321 of the C.S.R. to officers of the Salt and Abkari Dept. in Madras whose pay does not exceed Rs.20 a month and intimated that the necessary addition had been made to the article.

3. It is submitted that the Bombay Government may be furnished with copies of the correspondence of 1890.

4. A draft letter is submitted for approval.
