Dear Mr Campbell.

I trust you will pardon me for troubling you, but I am in distress about my conveyance allowance. I have been on plague duty in Vellore since January 23rd. My work as I think you know is to examine all female deaths, and all females suffering from sickness of any kind, with the possibility of it being plague, which means that I diagnose all female cases in the whole of this district. This I cannot do without a conveyance of some sort. The Vellore municipality paid my Jutka the first month I was here. But I believe the Plague Commissioner said conveyance allowance was to be paid by provincial funds. We have now heard that Government have disallowed it. I have already

ready
I paid Rs 60 for the use of a jutha for my work for march and april thinking of course it would be refunded to me.
As I cannot possibly pay for my own conveyance out of my pay Rs 175 per month less Income Tax and I cannot do my work without a conveyance. What is to be done? The chairman of the Municipality tells me he thinks there is to be an abatement of all plague rules very soon. That may be but that does not pay for the work that has been done for the last four months. It is now the end of May and the owner of my jutha will expect his pay. I have done plague work in Bombay, Karachi, and Hubli and in all cases the municipalities have paid an allowance or provided a conveyance for the sisters on plague work. I am sorry to have to trouble you.

Yours sincerely,
(sd) E. Bleaney

I have the honor to forward herewith an extract from Miss Bleaney's letter, dated 23rd May 1899 and to request that you will be so good as to move government as a special case to sanction the grant of conveyance allowances actually incurred up to the date of the E.O.
by nurses Miss Bleaney, Miss Hawdon, and Mrs Turner. The pay of the nurses is small

Note for C. A

In G. O. No 573 Mil
dated 5th May 1899 the Government declined to consider the question of the grant of conveyance allowance to officers and nursing sisters on plague duty in Bellone town, owing to the abatement of plague. In the current under disposal the C. A.

requests sanction for the grant of the allowance actually incurred up to date by the three nurses - Miss Sweeney, Miss Hawdon and Mrs Turner.

The pay of the first two nurses (inferior) is debited to Provincial.

The sanction of the Government of India will have to be obtained for the grant of conveyance allowances to them. The latest establishment list shows Mrs Turner as the nurse (on Rs 100) attached to the ambulance staff at Bellone under Local

Indians as to be settled
