Plague Estimate for January 1899 from the Collector of South Arcot.

Ref. On. C. No. 133 of 98, dated 6-1-99.

CHIEF SECRETARY
-7 JAN. 1899
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

24 D. Provincial. It is presumed the salary paid to Dr. Chalke will be adjusted in the accounts against the Anantapur District.

24 D. Local.

Travelling allowance of establishment. The expenditure of Rs. 245 and the provision of Rs. 150 for the current and succeeding months require explanation in view of the fact that the plague establishment consists of one plague maistris and 2 passport issuing clerks, whose work does not apparently necessitate such touring as to entitle them to travelling allowance.

24 D. Municipal.

Compounders. The provision made in the estimate relates only to the compounders employed for one month during the Tiruvannamalai festival. The compounder on plague duty in Cuddalore Old Town appears to have been wrongly included in "Supervisors of camps & Gumastahs."

24 A. Medical. As Dr. Beit was not employed on plague duty, the charges on account of his salary should not appear in the plague budget, vide paragraph 4 of G. O. No. 1122 Fin., dated 28-11-98.
