The original of f.o. No 862 P. This dated 6th June 1891 has been received today and put up for information.
 The existing plague establishment in the Local and Municipal department and the Plague Commission's Office establishment have been amalgamated and the result of the amalgamation is a saving of Rs (892-637) or 265 per mensem.
 The Plague Commission's establishment was hitherto ^{treated} as a direct charge while the establishment in the Local department is debited to 18th General Administration. By the amalgamation of the two establishments the whole cost now becomes indirect and will be debited to 18th General Administration. The next plague estimates will show ^{accurately} what amount will be required on account of plague under this head for the year 1891-92 and any extra amount over that sanctioned in the C. B. E.

Reference is ^{also} directed to the Financial department note on pages 23 & 24 of the original. It was remarked that if these establish-ments were amalgamated it would be excessively difficult to separate them or to get the permanent establish-ments back to ^{their} old level and that for financial purposes, the sanction for two sets of establishments should be kept quite distinct. From pages 28 & 29, it is assumed that, when it was suggested that the two sets at Ooty (one on Rs. 100 & the other on Rs. 25) should come under 184 G.O. Admin.

the 184 being included under 242 grant for med. purposes. The Secretary should be debited to 184 G.O. Admin.

In the C.S.

It is submitted that the opinion of the Financial Dept. in this matter of the debit of the cost of the establishment should not have been set aside without further giving this Dept. a further opportunity of placing its views on records.
The result of the present decision will be to increase Provincial Plague charges & to diminish Imperial Charges pro tanto. As the decision further involved a re-appropriation of funds, which Financial alone can sanction, it is subd. that the C.O. of the Fin. Dept. to the L & C. order should have been
