Note.

In the absence of specific instructions, the practice in the Accountant-General's office appears to be to debit the cost involved in the deputation of an officer on special duty to the same head to which his substantive pay is debited. If this ~~cause~~ ^{course} is followed in the present case the cost on account of the salaries, travelling allowances and contingencies of Mr.Hammick and his establishment should be debited to 20 - POLICE.

2. Recently the cost involved in the deputation of Mr.Parsons investigating into the existence of dummy schools in Malabar, was ordered to be debited to 22 EDUCATION. The deputation of the Hon'ble Mr. Carmichael, Member of Council, in 1881 ^{for} enquiring into the Rumpa disturbances and of Mr. (now the Honourable Mr.) Winterbotham in 1896 to enquire into the Mopla outbreak are not cases to the point. It is submitted that the Accountant-General may be consulted G.O. in the matter.

3. The special duty is to last 2 months. The G.O. placing Mr.Hammick on special duty has not been communicated to the Financial Department and it does not give any idea of what the approximate cost of the deputation will amount to, nor does it refer to the question as to whence the extra cost is to be met.

If the charges are debited to 20 POLICE there will be sufficient savings under that head though it is too early now to specify the particular source from which a reappropriation can be made.

4. A proposition statement is necessary under Article 57, Civil Account Code, for the hands entertained by Mr. Hammick.

For. C.A.

It was ascertained from the Act General's office that the Hon'ble Mr. Carmichael & Mr. (now the Hon'ble Mr.) Winterbotham were on special duty in addition to their substantive appointments and that no substitutes were appointed for them in their substantive places.

In the case of Mr. Hammick it is otherwise as then is an officer who acts as J. G. of Police and Mr. Hammick is doing solely the duties of his deputation.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

1st February 1881, No. 243.

Hill Tracts.

No. 6.

Proceedings, 1st February 1881, No. 243.

The propriety of appointing a Special Commissioner for duty in a portion of the Northern Districts, having for some time been under the consideration of Government, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council resolves to depute the Honorable Mr. Carmichael, Member of Council, who was for seven years (1862—69) Agent to the Governor of Fort St. George in Vizagapatam and Ganjam, to proceed on a tour through the Hill Tracts of those districts and the Godavari District, with the view of such a settlement of affairs being effected in those parts as may guard by every possible means against the recurrence of occasions for enforcing the authority of Government by recourse to arms.

2. During his deputation, Mr. Carmichael will take the chief direction of affairs throughout the localities above specified; the District Officers being subject to his control in all matters, in all branches of the administration, and corresponding with him instead of with Government—copies of their letters being forwarded to Government for information. The Governor in Council grants him full authority in every case where, in his opinion, the public good may require the adoption of prompt or early measures, to act upon his own discretion and responsibility, without a previous reference to Government. This authority extends to all cases now pending for decision.

3. The services of Major J. McD. Smith, Madras Staff Corps, now Superintendent of the Central Jail, Rajahmundry, and formerly Special Assistant in the Vizagapatam and Ganjam Agencies, are, on Mr. Carmichael's nomination, placed at his disposal as Secretary. Major Smith will draw an additional sum of Rs. 500, with the travelling allowances of a Principal Assistant. Such native servants as may be necessary will be employed by Mr. Carmichael at his discretion. The Surgeon-General will attach a qualified Medical Subordinate to the Special Commissioner's Camp.

4. Mr. Carmichael will continue to draw his full allowances as a Member of Council; and any extra expenses incurred by him in consequence of the present service will be paid by the Government on submission of the usual certificate. Advances will be made from the different treasuries on requisition.
