Sir,

I have the honor to request that the Government may be pleased to accord its sanction for the payment of the usual 1/8th of Contribution from Provincial funds towards the pay and allowances of the medical Subordinate attached to the Local fund dispensary at Iritte. This dispensary was formerly at Kuthuparamba and it was temporarily transferred to Iritte for the purpose of plague inspection in September last. When it was at Kuthuparamba 1/8th of the pay and allowances of the medical subordinate in charge, was being paid from Provincial funds.

2. There are only a few foot servants at Iritte but the population of the place is also very small owing to the unhealthy nature of the locality.

I have the honor to be,

C. Nos 2433 and 2434

Notes.

C. No. 2434

In the ~~Financial~~ Department the Chairman, Municipal Council, Tinnevely, applies for the usual 1/8th contribution from Provincial Funds towards the salary of the Municipal Apothecary from the 1st April 1899. The Surgeon General recommends the concession, the number of Government servants ^{who} ~~at the place~~ requiring the services of the Apothecary being ~~153~~ ¹⁵³. The charge, however, cannot be met from the grant of Rs 1,44,000 provided in the current year's budget for contributions to Municipal Dispensaries, and the Surgeon General does not suggest any other re-appropriation. The Acct General therefore recommends that the contribution may be made with effect from the 1st April 1900.

2. Seeing that there are as many as 153 public servants availing themselves of the services of the Municipal Apothecary at Trivello, it is submitted that the Municipality has made out a good case for the contribution claimed. The amount involved is very small, being only Rs 103 and this amount the Surgeon General may be asked whether he ^{can} ~~could~~ reappropriate from any other head under his control under 24 Medical. If he can find the amount, the contribution may be sanctioned with effect from the 1st April 1899.

3. In the ~~present~~ ^{above} the President, District Board, Malabar, applies for the $\frac{1}{8}$ contribution towards the salary of the medical subordinate attached to the Local Fund dispensary at Jettty. This dispensary was formerly located at Kuthuparamba and in September last it was closed and transferred to Jettty, the President says temporarily, for the purpose of plague inspection.

of the medical subordinate which was being paid when the hospital was at Kuthuparam he would appear to have been stopped on the transfer of the hospital to Jettty. There are only one head constable and seven constables at the place and it is submitted that the object of the contribution being to relieve Local funds to some extent of the cost of the medical treatment of a large number of Government servants, the request of the District Board, should ~~be~~
