No. 1587-G.A., dated the 18th November 1898.

From—The Accountant General, Bengal,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department.

With reference to para. 9 of the Government of India, Home Department, Resolution No. 1141-1150, dated 22nd August 1898, published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India dated 27th August 1898, page 1521, regarding payment, in full measure, of salary and contributions by Municipal and Local Funds for the services of Assistant Surgeons employed in Municipal and Local Charitable Dispensaries, I have the honour to enquire whether it is the intention of the Government of India that contributions towards leave allowances and pensions should now be levied on the pay of such Assistant Surgeons notwithstanding that they are exempted from paying such contributions under Article 817 (i), Civil Service Regulations.
