CURRENT No. 150

Stationery Office,

Madras, 9th January 1899.

No. 123

From

J.N. Atkinson Esquire, I.C.S.,

SUPERINTENDENT OF STATIONERY,

MADRAS,

To

The Chief Secretary to Government,

Financial Department,

Fort Saint George.

SIR,

With reference to G.O.No.1244, Financial, dated 17th ultimo, I have the honour to bring to your notice that the Stationery Rules, as they now stand, are defective in that the actual requirements of several officers are not correctly embodied in Appendix A to the Rules. With the object of supplying these deficiencies the indents for 1899-1900 are being very carefully checked.

2. The inclusion of officers of the Educational Department in the list of free issues has led to several new demands for articles not hitherto kept, and these should be entered in the Rules.

3. Another point which has been brought out by recent indents is that in certain offices there are draftsmen for whom the Rules provide no special stationery.

4. I therefore propose, with the permission of Government, to defer the revision of the Stationery Rules until after the current indent season so as to embody in the draft all corrections that may be observed to be necessary.

5. It will also be a convenience to include the authorised lists of rubber stamps which I am expecting from (various various departments.

6. In the meanwhile copies of the Addenda and Corrigenda will be communicated to officers specially concerned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. H. Atkinson

Superintendent of Stationery.
