NOTE FOR THE C.A.

With reference to C.A.'s enquiry why copies of the Administration report of the Madras Harbour should not go to the India Office & the British Museum, it is submitted that according to G.O. No. 582-1-95, the department of the Secretariat concerned has been given the discretion to decide whether any copies should go to I.O. In this case, the Marine Deptt has decided that no copies of the publication are to go to the I.O. The reason for this decision appears in the pencil note on the original of the Marine Encl. H. It is said that the report in question has not been included in the Appendix to G.O. 188-2-4-2-99. (2) that the report is printed at the Fort Press and a special arrangement comes to be made for 722 Mar. 3 11 & 97. & that a similar report has not been sent last year. I telephoned to the ^{Secy} ~~Secy~~ for a copy of this Marine G.O. to be furnished by a special messenger. It has not come yet (4 P.M.) the absence of the G.O. it could be said on what the special
