(a) The decrease is due partly to the clerk having taken sick leave in August 1898 and partly to the post having remained vacant in January 1899.
(b) Fixed with reference to the average expenditure incurred during the past three years.
(c) Fixed with reference to the actuals of the past year and of the first four months of this year.
Note.—The classification of contingent expenditure as recently revised by the Accountant-General has been adopted in the budget.
