-mate estimate of the period re-quired for the disposal of the surplus stock with reference to the arrangement sanctioned in paragraph 1 of G. O. No. 143 Ftbl., dated the 29 June 99. The Super-intendent now reports that it will take between two to three years to exhaust the existing stock (917,300 quilts) as the average issue per annum for the five years ending 1895-96 was 425,939.

2. Orders are solicited as to whether the India Office should be addressed as suggested in para 3 of the Superintendent's letter No. 3065, dated 22 June 99, or page 3 of G.O. No. 743 Feb, of 29 June 99, or whether the exhaustion of the surplus quilts may be left to the operation of that order. The Superintendent was there authorised to issue the quilts on the old scale during the current and succeeding years. According to the present report only a small supply will remain for issue in the third year.
