To

The Right Honourable Lord George Francis Hamilton,

Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Simla, the 8th June 1899.

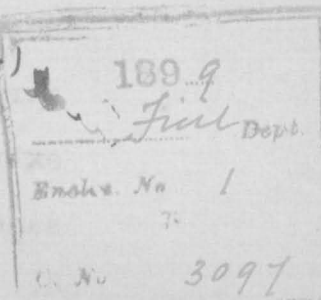

My Lord,

We have the honour to forward, for Your Lordship's consideration, a copy of correspondence with the Government of Madras regarding the temporary appointment of a plague assistant in the Madras Secretariat.

2. The appointment of Plague Commissioner which was sanctioned in Your Lordship's Despatch No.55 (Revenue), dated the 16th March last has, owing to the decline of plague, been held in abeyance since the 4th May last. The Madras Government gave the Plague Commissioner a personal assistant on Rs 300 a month to assist him in his office work and to be in charge of the office during his absence from head-quarters. We sanctioned the continuance of the appointment for the few days it was required beyond six months.

3. The office work hitherto done by the Plague Commissioner has been transferred to the Local and Municipal Department of the Secretariat. The Government of Madras represent that this entails a considerable amount of somewhat difficult office work which requires to be done promptly and intelligently. They, therefore, ask that a special clerk on Rs 300 a month may be attached to the Secretariat for as long as the prevalence of plague renders his services necessary. We agree with the Government of Madras that the extra appointment is needed and request that Your Lordship will sanction it.

4. We have caused the Government of Madras to be informed
