DEPARTMENT.

MS 21/11

SIR,

I have the honor to solicit the sanction of Government to Major S. L. Sarkis I. Ind, District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Kistna drawing travelling allowance for his journey from Bandar to Kondapalli and back.

2.

Dr. S. L. Lusk, The Medical Officer on Plague duty at Kondapalli was taken bad with fever and required urgent relief and it became necessary to depute Major S. L. Sarkis I. Ind who attests that, on his arrival at Kondapalli, he found Dr. S. L. Lusk to be free from fever, but he was unfit to attend to his duties for a few days and accordingly recommended him eight days casual leave which was granted by me.

3.

The Accountant General objects to pass the travelling allowance of Major S. L. Sarkis I. Ind on the ground that there should be no extra expense to the State by the grant of casual leave to an officer.

4.

Under these circumstances I request

Res

Submitted yours to the A. S. as the
