READ—also the following papers:—

From the Revd. H. B. HYDE, M.A., Bishop's Chaplain, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 17th October 1899, No. 1970.

I have the honour, by direction of the Lord Bishop of Madras, to request that Government will be pleased to restore the grant of Rs. 100 a month formerly made to the incumbent of Yercaud with charge of Salem in view of the Revd. Mr. Thomas Foulkes, who since 1894 has been in honorary pastoral charge of Salem, being now unhappily incapacitated from work owing to a paralytic stroke.

Endt. No. 120.

There is no account objection to the allowance of Rs. 50 granted to the incumbent of Yercaud with Salem being raised to Rs. 100 under article 666, Civil Service Regulations.

16th November 1899.

The Bishop of Madras requests that Govt. will be pleased to restore the grant of Rs.100 per mensem formerly made to the Incumbent of Yercaud.

3. This grant was made in 1861 under para 19 of the Despatch of the Hon: the Court of Directors No.5 Eccl. d/ 11th Aug. 1858 on the condition that a clergyman of the Colonial Church^c Society be retained in spiritualⁿ charge of "the residents at Salem and the Shevaroy Hills"

Letter d/ 11-3-67 read in B
G.O.No.45 Eccl. d/25-3-67

3. In 1867, however, the Secretary to the Salem and Shevaroy Church Committee informed Govt. that the Colonial and Continental Church Society had intimated that they were no longer ^{able} to supply a clergyman for the Sheva-roys and Salem and requested that ⁱⁿ ~~on~~ the event of the Salem and Shevaroy Church Committee being able to obtain the services of a clergyman for those stations, Govt. would sanction the grant.

grant of Rs.100 p.m. hitherto ^{drawn} by the Colonial and Continental Church Society Committee, to the clergyman undertaking these duties. The Secretary's letter was referred to the Bishop of Madras for his views and in his letter d/ 20-3-67 that officer reported that he anticipated no difficulty in finding clergymen willing to undertake the duty for several months in the year, if the amount which the Govt. had for some years contributed was continued. The Bishop's proposal was sanctioned in G.O.No.65 Eccl. d/27-3-67 and the Acctt. Genl. was authorized to pass the allowance to any clergyman on his application and on the production of certificates to the effect (1) that the Bishop had appointed him for a specified time (2) that the duties of the charge had actually been discharged.

4. ^{This} arrangement was approved and confirmed by the Govt. of India in its letter No.1749 d/26-3-68. In 1872 the Acctt. Genl. enquired of the Govt. whether the allowance of Rs.100 p.m. sanctioned for ~~the~~ Chaplain ^{Services} at Yercaud was also intended to be drawn by Govt. Chaplains on privilege leave. This Govt.'s reply was in the affirmative. The Acctt. Genl, however, again raised the same question in 1877 by disallowing, under Sec. 13 Supplement E of the Civil Leave Code, the allowances of Revd. Leeming for 3 months during which he acted as Chaplain of Yercaud while on privilege leave. On this the local Govt. referred the question for the orders of the Govt. of

India

India which disallowed the charge on the ground taken by the Acctt. Genl. at the same time expressing the belief that the Bishop ~~could~~ ^{the} without inconvenience, though ~~without~~ ^{could not be granted,} allowances, arrange for occasional services at such outlying stations as Yercaud. The Govt. of India was ^{then} again address ed with a request for reconsideration of its decision but the Govt. of India again declined to accede to the recommendations of the Madras Govt.

6. In his letter No.1280 d/ 16-2-94 the Bishop reported that under the then arrangements Salem was visited only once a month by the Incumbent of Yercaud and recommended that the Revd. F. Foulkes, retired Chaplain residing at Salem be permitted, at his own request, to undertake without remuneration, the clerical duty at Salem, with charge of Suramangalam, the Rev. J.F. Spencer (the Incumbent of Yercaud) being instructed to discontinue his visits to that place. The Bishop's proposal was approved and the allowance of Rs.100 which had till then been drawn by the Yercaud Incumbent (Rev.J.F. Spencer) was reduced to Rs.50.

7. This reduction did not meet the Bishop's views and the latter, therefore, requested that the matter might be reconsidered but Govt. ~~declined~~ declined to reconsider the orders already passed. It will be seen, however, from the notes in this G.O. that the intention of Govt was that the allowance should be again increased when Mr. Foulkes ceased to do duty at Salem.

8. That time has now arrived. The Bishop reports that the Rev. Mr. Foulkes has become incapacitated for further service owing to a paralytic stroke. Hence the request for a restoration of the grant.

9. It is submitted, however, that the real purport of the request is that the existing allowance of Rs. 50 paid by Govt. in respect of Yercaud may be raised to Rs. 100 as formerly. but as this is not made clear in the Current Perhaps the file might go u.o. to the Acct. Genl. for favour of remarks on this point before the issue of orders.
