NOTE.—This receipt should be sent by the Consignor to the Consignee, as the Company reserves to themselves the right of refusing to deliver the Parcel without the production of this receipt, duly endorsed. The Company do not undertake to hold either of the original of Parcel, otherwise they will not be given up.

When Parcels are loaded to a Station where the Company has a Railway Agent, the Consignor should advise the Consignee whether the charge for Delivery to the Consignee's address has been paid or not, so that if it has not, and the Consignee wishes the Parcel to be delivered by the Company's Agent, he may advise the Station Master to that effect, otherwise it will be kept till called for at the owner's risk, and wharfage charge will be incurred.

It must be distinctly understood that the Company claim the right to correct any charges made on any Parcel that may be undercharged in this receipt, and that they reserve to themselves the right of re-measurement, reweighing, and re-estimation of contents, and the Parcels are subject to a lien, not only for the charges upon the Parcel named in this receipt, but also for any general balance that may be due to the Company by the owner, Consignor or Consignee; also that the Parcel named in this receipt will only be carried subject to the conditions stated on the other side, and to the Rules, Regulations, wharfage, and other charges, &c., in force, on each Railway over which the Parcel may be carried.

The sender is bound to truly declare the contents of any Parcel tendered for despatch under a penalty of five Rupees per hundred.

In the case of Parcels in which there is a "Paid On" the Station delivering the Parcel should, when two receipts have been given, be careful, if possible, to collect both receipts, namely, the one from the original forwarding Station and the one from the re-forwarding Station.

* Box, Basket, or Bundle, as the case may be, to be entered.
