Sir,

XXI

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 80, dated the 29th January 1897. I am directed to say that, in the circumstances explained, the Government of India will not object to the payment of exchange compensation allowance to Mr. R. A. Nelson during the second term of his engagement as Principal of the Law College, Madras. The sanction of the Secretary of State to the grant of the allowance is not required.

2. I am, however, to point out that the Government

Government of Madras, both in fixing Mr. Nelson's allowances and in permitting him to practice in the Courts in Madras city, are dealing with him as an officer under special terms of agreement with Government and not in its ordinary service. I am to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, it may be clearly explained to Mr. Nelson that he is on this footing and that especially under the rule in Article 384(C) of the Civil Service Regulations he has no claim to pension.

I have the honour to be,
^{Sir}
Your most obedient servant,

R. M. D. A. C.

Dy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

Ordered that copy be forwarded to the Home Department, for information.
