Note on Industrial occupations

The note on industrial occupations received from the offices in charge of the Dept. of Industries may be sent to the Home (Rev) Dept. for the use of the Administration Report office.

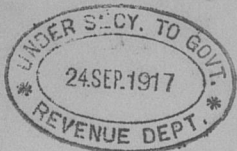

2. In para 2 of its endorsement the Board of Revenue requests orders as to whether the note should in future years continue to be submitted through ~~the~~ it. The circumstances under which the Govt decided to call for a note on industrial occupation will be found in the notes

⑤ to go. N. 1900 Rev., dated the 26th June 1913. As the Board of Revenue ~~intercepted~~ has to submit a note on 'manufactures' for the Presidency Administration report the Revenue Dept. then considered it desirable that the note on industrial occupation pations should ~~also~~ pass through the Board. The Board ~~generally~~ has no remarks to offer on the note. It is therefore for orders whether the officer in charge of the Dept. of Industries may be asked to send the note direct to the Govt in future.
