Memorandum—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. H. GRANT, C.S.I., C.I.E., I.C.S., Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign and Political Department.

To—the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Dated—Simla, the 25th October 1917.

No.—1735-G.

Under existing French passport regulations travellers who intend to visit France or French territories are required to apply for a visa of their passports to the Consul for France in the country in which they reside.

In reply to such applications travellers will be sent a form in duplicate which they will be required to fill up, and in addition to affix to each copy a photograph identical with that on their passports. Except in the case of travellers who intend to cross France without stopping, they will be required to give two references to residents in France for purposes of identification.

Applicants will then return the form to the Consul who will instruct them when to call for the visa of their passports.

2. The French Government have now exempted British subjects who intend to visit the zone of the British armies in France, or the interior of France in the public interest from these formalities; and have also authorized their Agents to extend this exemption to other ordinary travellers in cases of well-established urgency.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
