HOME (Miscellaneous)

Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith application of Parvathi Ammal for a passport to Federated Malay States.

The application is preferred before me by S. Dharmalingam holder of Passport No. 1438 granted on 22nd October 1917. The woman is of the Dancing Girl caste and admittedly not the wife of Dharmalingam. He wishes to take the woman in the capacity of servant and states that she has been living with him for 8 or 9 years.

The rules for entry into Federated Malay States are silent on the subject of admitting women who are not either the wives or daughters of the persons with whom they travel, and I am not aware

whether whether any previous case has been decided by Government or whether any communication on the subject has been received from the Government of Federated Malay States. I request the favour of orders on the application.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. S. S.
